this morning, the estimate calling for 162 cars, or 11,000 heed. This brings the week's receipts up to 28,000 head, being about 700 smaller than a week ago, and more than 3,000 short of the same days

There was a better feeling in the hog trade this morning, and while first bide were lower and the early sales no better than steady, the market closed in good shape, with the big end of the offerings moving at figures that were strong to in many cases fully a riched higher than many cases fully a nickel higher than yesterday's average. Packers started out bidding on a nickel lower basis, but nothing sold at this time and things soon strengthened up, the first sales being made in yesterday's notches. The majority made in yesterday's notches. The majority of the salesmen were holding for higher prices, however, and with a good demand values continued to improve.

The next sales were made at shade higher figures, and the best spot came is of the ten round contest he toward the close, when a number of droves sold fully 5c higher, with two or tiree atkings, which old at the extreme best time, looking to be anywhere from a mickel to 75c better than yester ay's average. The general market can be quoted as steady to be higher, and the average is a good showing of the later sales up to $6.06, the top, while quite a avrinking of the first hogs sold lauded at $7.95 and $1.775, No. Av.
